Institution Comments Regarding Staff Comments Above, If Applicable:	I realized there is a minor discrepancy in our Data Science - Full Time SPFS. Under the salary and wage information section we had marked that one person reported no salary information and one person made $100,000+. The person who was marked as no salary information reported should have been marked under $100,000+. To sum this up 2 people should have been marked under making "$100,000+" and no one should have been marked under "no salary information reported". This has been updated.
